Another Case Reported.

Another Case Reported.

Yesterday another case of smallpox was officially reported to the city authorities. The patient was in a house in Alley C just south of Twenty-second street. The blace was quarantined and quarded, and last evening the patient was removed to the pest house, and the premises where the disease appeared thoroughly disinfected. All the other cases are reported as progressing favorably, and the quarantinearrangement is working well.

A Bad Practice on the Streets. A Had Fractice on the Streets,
There is much just complaint of the profane and vulgar laneuage constantly heard on the streets. It is scarcely safe for a woman to pass along Market street when there are many men and boys out, so almost universal is the evireferred to. The police frequently speak to offenders, but there are not enough efficers to break up the habit. Some person should inaugurate a crasade against the nuisance. A few stiff fines would have a salutary effect.

A VERDICT OF GUILTY

In the Case of George Mager, at Mounds-ville-The Others Accused to be Tried at

The trial of George Mager, of this city, indicted for assault on Thomas O'Brien, jr., on a Baltimore & Ohio train in Marshall county last fall, was continued yesterday in the circuit court at Moundaville. The defense attempted to yesterday in the circuit court its Moundaville. The defense attempted to show that Mager was not concerned in the assault, but that it was committed by William Harrison and J. J. O'Dowd ("Reddy Dowd"). The result of this notice was that a bench warrant was issued for "Reddy," and he was taken into custedy.

The ovidence was very direct as to Mager's participation in the attack on O'Brien, and the jury found him guilty of unlawful assault. A motion for a new trial was entered. The law gives the court a wide range of discretion as to the penalty for this offense, which may be a jail or penitentiary sentence, with or without fine.

The case of liarrison will be taken up to-day. These cases excited great interest in Wheeling, and the news of the verdict last night caused a good deal of talk and friends of the interested partices had soveral warm arguments on the subject. It is the understanding that these cases do not have any effect on the pending indictments for causing an affray and tumnit on a railroad train, and that those cases will also be pushed. affray and tumult on a railroad train, and that those cases will also be pushed to trial as soon as possible.

AID FOR CAMERON PROPLE

May be Left at the Intelligencer Office and Will be Forwarded.

Persons desiring to contribute to the relief of the sufferers by the terrible disaster at Cameron may have their donations forwarded promptly by leavdonations forwarded promptly by leaving them at the Interaction office. Several contributions of cash and a few packages of clothing were left yesterday. These will be sent out to Cameron by the U. S. express line at 3 o'clock this afternoon, together with any other donations received hefore that hour. Those who can afford to aid the destitute victims of the fire should remember the old and true saying that "He gives twice who gives quickly. Monoy, clothing and provisions are needed, and will be placed by the local committee where they will do the most good.

The punils and teachers of the Bonwood public schools sent quite an amount of eatables out to Cameron yesterday to the fire sufferers. Each one donated one small article and it was brought to the school building, boxed up, and it made quite a showing.

The people of Moundsville and vicinity are taking active measures for the relief of the people who were rendered homeless by the Cameron fire. A mass meeting has been set for to-night at the court house when some systematic course will be decided on. The B. & O, railroad will carry anything destined for the relief of the relief of the sufferers free of all freight charges.

THE CASINO OPERAS

Continue to Make Decidedly Favorable Impressions-Two Performances To-day Last evening there was another large audience at the Park Casino, one of the largest during the engagement of the Robinson Comic Opera Company, to enjoy that old favorite, "Pinafore." This opera, one of the prettiest and most tuneful ever written, is presented too seldem to suit the public tastes and always draws well. It was as well put on last night as ever seen in Wheeling, and the large autience showed its en-thusiastic appreciation in no uncertain way.

The opera at the matinee to-day will The opera at the matines to-day was be "The Chimes of Normandy," so well done last week. This evening the company will give its strongest opera, "Fra Diavolo." It is not usual to give a night performance on the same day as a matinee, but owing to the fact that one performance was missed last week, and to the general desire that "Fra Diavolo" might be seen again, it was decided to out it on to-night. put it on to-night.
